This Book Is Affectionately Dedicated to the Memory of Harvey A. Cope

Harvey Cope passed away suddenly this year, and he will be sadly missed by all the students who knew him.

Mr. Cope was voted the most popular teacher several years in a row. Economic students will remember his WIN button, Cope shoes, and his deaf act with the attendance girls. Some of Mr. Cope's favorite sayings were "Time out!", "No woy, baby" and "Don't mess with the rock!".

In the seven years Mr. Cope was with the Marple Newtown Senior High School, his personality had a positive effect on his colleagues and his students. His empathy and concern for students is well known. Consequently, Mr. Cope's contributions to the well-being of his pupils is a monument to his sense of humanity.

In 1975, what had over 100 costumes, 29 actors, 12 songs, six kegs of ale, 5 romantic "offshoots," 4 stoges, 3 bowdye dances, 2 hangings, a chamberpot, a sword fight, a bloody nose, a porridge, and a pair of cockatoos?

The performance group's spectacular musical, TOM JONES.

Set in the 18th century England, Tom Jones was the story of a young man who had a knack for getting into trouble, especially with women. The action of the play moved swiftly from the haunts of London high society to dank prisons, from the village church to bedrooms at the Upton Inn. The audience sat on bleachers and scaffolds in the midst of a unique, atmospheric environmental set.

Students in the cast were: P. Anderson, K. Alston, D. Artzerounian, A. Bassey, R. Beck, L. Cedarquist, S. Clay, J. Dengler, J. Dever, M. Gentile, V. Giarna, B. Guralnick, A. Karoman, A. Kelly, H. Dear Students,

The fourteenth-century martyr Jan Hus went to the stake for uttering the following: "Seek the truth, listen to the truth, teach the truth, love the truth, abide by the truth, and defend the truth unto death." Of course, all of this takes a "lot of doing." However, if each of us accepts Hus' challenge then truth will prevail. I urge those seniors who are leaving us to take the challenge — to develop a personal credo which will give more meaning and substance to their lives. A little idealism has never harmed anyone. Perhaps this Yearbook, this collection of Memories, can serve as a base for reaffirming your faith in the truth as Jan Hus viewed it.

May I extend best wishes to our Seniors and congratulations to the Memories staff for an excellent Yearbook.

Sincerely,

William C. Capriotti
